

First Generation

1. William FRETWELL. Born ca 1766.

William Fretwell appeared on the tax lists of Surry County, North Carolina in 1787 and 1789. If he was twenty-one years of age or older, he was born ca1766-1768. A William Fretwell also appeared on the federal census of 1790 as the head of household in the Salisbury District of Surry County. His age was given as 16+ years, thus born by 1774 or earlier, a single male. In 1800, a William Fretwell appeared on a personal property tax list in Henry County, Virginia. If he was twenty-one years of age or older, he was born by 1779 or earlier. None of these records indicate whether William had a family.

This is the only family group with a descendant named Muscow. A Muscow Fretwell was baptised on 3 Mar 1771 at St. James, Northan Parish, Goochland Co., Virginia, the son of John Fretwell and Mary Bullock. Muscow appeared in a law suit in Albemarle Co., Virginia in 1798. No other records found.
